Co-hosted by:

Panellists include:
• Lakshmi Puri, Deputy Executive Director, UN Women
• Andreas Glossner, Vice Chair of the WEOG in the CSW Bureau, Permanent Mission of Germany to the UN
• Danae Fredas Toledo, WAGGG Youth Delegate from Chile
• Laxman Belbase, IANYD Working Group representative

Join us to discuss how negative social norms and stereotypes on gender continue to shape the unequal status and role of girls and young women in the society leading to discrimination and violence, and translating into the world of education and work. Whether it’s attitudes normalizing violence and harassment or norms around choice of subjects in school – they all undermine girls’ and young women’s future opportunities and have to be challenged.

TUESDAY 21 MARCH 11:30-12:45 | CONFERENCE ROOM 11 – GA BUILDING

Please RSVP Edward.Gay@wagggs.org