MenEngage Africa and UNFPA-ESARO invite you to join us for a panel discussion on “Moving from Rhetoric to Accountability – Work with Men and Boys for the Abandonment of FGM.”

13 March 2017
6:15pm
Armenian Cultural Center – Guild Hall

The discussion will be moderated by Itumeleng Komanyane, International Programmes Unit Manager, Sonke Gender Justice

SPEAKERS:

Bafana Khumalo, Co-Founder and Senior Strategic Advisor, Sonke Gender Justice: Engaging men and boys in FGM prevention - What has worked?

Luis Mora - Chief, Gender Human Rights and Culture Branch (GHRCB), UNFPA.

Nafissatou Diop - FGM JP UNFPA-UNICEF Coordinator UNFPA NY.

Seynabou Tall - Technical Gender Adviser (UNFPA ESARO) - Ending female genital mutilation (FGM): Opportunities for regional and national collaboration between UNFPA and African governments.

Representative from East Africa.

Koshuma Mtengeti - Executive Director of Children’s Dignity Forum and head of MenEngage Tanzania Secretariat - Sharing practical experiences on what has worked in engaging men and boys to end FGM.

For more information or to RSVP write to mabel@genderjustice.org.za