Every girl and every woman has the right to decide over their own bodies – it is self-evident and must be reiterated again and again. This was starkly illustrated by the #MeToo movement, which is uniquely strong in the Nordic region.

The Nordic Ministers for Gender Equality will discuss strategies to provide equal access across rural areas to sexuality education, contraception and platforms to challenge gender norms. Join them!

The discussion is moderated by Lena Ag, DG of Swedish Gender Equality Agency.