Women in government across the globe have long struggled for equality, and while tremendous progress has been made in recent decades for women around the world, there still remain unique cultural and societal obstacles to women’s empowerment in government. This event will feature influential women and their personal journeys to governmental positions of leadership.

“PERSONAL STORIES OF WOMEN’S JOURNEYS IN LEADERSHIP”

A high-level side event for the 62nd Commission on the Status of Women

20 March 2018
10:00 to 11:15 AM
CR 11 – GA Building

Sponsored by, Permanent Mission of Guatemala

Moderator:
• Mrs. Michele Bachmann, United States of America Congresswoman House of Representatives and Executive Director of Skyline United Nations

Panelists:
• Ms. Virgínia Fernandes Bayonne, Second Secretary of the Permanent Mission of the Republic of Angola to the United Nations
• Mrs. Molly White, United States of America State Representative
• Ms. Donna Jollay, Director of Christian Relations for Israel 365 in Beit Shemesh, Israel
• Mrs. Audrea Decker, President of im2moro

For more information please contact:
TESPENSEN@UN-NYC.COM

www.SkylineUN.com
Facebook: Skyline United Nations

Women in government across the globe have long struggled for equality, and while tremendous progress has been made in recent decades for women around the world, there still remain unique cultural and societal obstacles to women’s empowerment in government. This event will feature influential women and their personal journeys to governmental positions of leadership.