

Empowered lives.
Resilient nations.

CSW 63

Gender Equality in Public Administration in Conflict-Affected Settings: Opportunities & Challenges

Friday, 15 March 2019

12:00 pm – 1:15 pm

How does conflict and peacemaking affect gender equality in public administration? And what are the implications of these dynamics for advancing gender equality and peace in conflict-affected settings? This event, co-organized by UNDP, the University of Pittsburgh and UNPBSO, will feature a presentation and discussion on the findings of new global research on the links between conflict and gender equality in public administration.

The session will be livestreamed at <http://tinyurl.com/yyo86of3>

Location: Amartya Sen Room - UNDP's Offices
(304 E 45th St – 10th Floor)

RSVP: Space is limited. Please e-mail gepa@undp.org by 14 March.
Instructions to follow.

Presentation by

The Gender Inequality
Research Lab (GIRL)
University of Pittsburgh

Moderator

Jose Cruz-Osorio
Advisor, Core Government Functions
United Nations Development Programme (UNDP)

Discussant

Henk-Jan Brinkman
Chief, Peacebuilding Strategy and Partnerships
UN Peacebuilding Support Office
Department of Political and Peacebuilding Affairs
(UN PBSO, DPPA)