1. The Ministry of Family and the Promotion of Women’s (MINFAMU) mission is to propose the design, conduct, execution and control of national policy for the defense and welfare of the family, advancement of women and the guarantee of gender equality.

2.1. Family and Promotion Women:

a) Creation of economic, social, cultural and political conditions for the family to perform its core function in society, as the primary social unit, with respect to identity, union, autonomy and traditional values
b) Promoting of women rights and equal opportunity and benefits for women and men in Angola

2.1.2. Programs:
a) Strengthening the institutional capacity of MINFAMU
b) Appreciation of family and strengthening family skills
c) Support for gender issues and advancement of women
d) Support to victims of violence
e) Advancement of rural women
f) Community development

2.2. Community Development and Support for Rural Women:

a) Promotion of socio-economic development of rural and peasant communities, increasing significantly there welfare and simultaneously contribute to the rise in food security of the Angolan population as well as poverty eradication.

2.2.1. Programs:
a) Upgrading of rural villages
b) Economic and productive structuring of rural communities
c) Community development
d) Support to economic activity of rural women
e) Institutional capacity building

3. Enacting Legislation:
- Law 25/11: Law against Domestic Violence and its Regulations

Thursday, March 12th 2015 (10:00am - 11:15am) Conference Room 11 (GA Building)