A Panel Discussion on

Catalytic Partnerships for Gender Equality in Education: The Way Forward

Tuesday, 10 March, 2015, 4:45 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.

Dag Hammarskjöld Auditorium, United Nations Headquarters

A new inter-agency Joint Programme on empowering adolescent girls and young women through education will be launched on this occasion.

The event will feature various partnership initiatives that create educational breakthroughs for girls and women, and explore what makes these partnerships transformative and successful.

This debate will focus on partnership models that can empower girls and women with relevant education and skills, to achieve gender equality and foster social inclusion and change. It will contribute to ongoing consultations on the post-2015 education agenda, including in the context of the World Education Forum in Incheon, Republic of Korea in May 2015.

Speakers Include:

Ms. Irina Bokova, Director-General of UNESCO

Ms. Phumzile Mlambo-Ngcuka, Executive Director for Policy and Programme of UN Women

Dr. Babatunde Osotimehin, UNFPA Executive Director

Ms. Caren Grown, Senior Director, Gender Group, World Bank
