SAVE THE DATE!

20th anniversary of the Fourth World Conference on Women, the Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action:
STEP IT UP FOR GENDER EQUALITY!

2. March for Gender Equality and Women’s Rights: 8 March, Midtown East. Step It Up for Gender Equality! Organized by UN Women in collaboration with the City of New York, NGO-CSW, UN Women for Peace Association, WGG, Man Up and other partners, the March aims at celebrating the achievements and gains women and girls have made since Beijing, through tireless work of women’s organizations and gender advocates. The March is planned for the participation of between 5000 and 15000 participants. It will be an opportunity to raise awareness of the existing forms of gender discrimination and underscore the need for political re-affirmation and commitment to accelerate actions to achieve gender equality and women’s empowerment.

3. Planet 5050: 10 March, Manhattan Center. Step it up for Gender Equality! The star studded Public Event will celebrate the 20th anniversary of the Fourth World Conference on Women, and the struggles, achievements and challenges of women and girls, and to demonstrate the power and energy of the global gender equality movement. The event will provide the opportunity to rally public giving, private sector pledging as well as governments and civil society recommitment. It will also issue a Call to Action to accelerate progress and achieve gender equality, women’s empowerment and rights by 2030.