Introducing Consultation. Evaluation. Education., Inc.

Consultation. Evaluation. Education., Inc. (CEE) is a vital 501(c) (3) organization that provides data metrics and process improvement, research, and educational services to nonprofits organizations (NPOs) and international nonprofit organizations (NGOs) working alongside governmental agencies to accomplish capacity building and management development. By working together, we believe that our services can enhance people-to-people interdependent interactions through analysis, measurement, validation, and improvement.

Recognizing the needs that exist among our target demographic, CEE’s staff provides NPOs and NGOs with support services that focus on individual empowerment. Throughout continuation of the proposed activities, our organization will continue to address the needs of our target communities, to brighten lives, and to assist each organization achieve their personal goals. Our organization’s objectives are accomplished by implementation of stimulating activities and materials that are organized around a well-developed prospectus.
CEE’s administrators have proudly established two comprehensive programs that provide support, resources, and training to underserved nonprofit organizations. Our primary program provides consultation and evaluation services to 501(c) (3) organizations and NGOs whose activities include working with the United Nations. Our staff members have continually noted that these organizations are not utilizing the use of data and statistical research to be competitive with other entities providing social services works. CEE’s services aspire to assist our clients identify deficiencies and solutions in these vital areas.

Within the UNPAN database, NGOs have the option to list the services for which they require assistance. CEE has partnered with the United Nations to gain access to the database listing requests for proposals and specific grants posted by United Nations registered NGOs. Very few organizations have extensive experience in management development or capacity building and are unable to access these services at rates they can afford. CEE responds to NGOs’ assistance requests and provides them with low-cost consultation and evaluation related to management development and capacity building. We work with organizations to set our rates at price points their budgets can afford. In order to provide our consultation and evaluation services in the most efficient manner possible, CEE’s volunteers will utilize teleconference, email, and Adobe Connect for all correspondence.
CEE is also seeking the support required to continue serving local 501(c) (3) organizations that are operating with limited budget and resources. Our representatives provide these organizations with educational workshops that are designed to assist in their growth and program delivery. Some of the topics to be discussed during this time may include, but are not limited to, management development and grant administration. Our aspiration is to facilitate a minimum of two to three workshops per year.

Our activities are overseen by a group of well-qualified individuals. Our diverse staff members have ties to the community, and thus possess the unique ability to relate to the target demographic. Additionally, our Board of Directors is comprised of a professional group of talented individuals who are dedicated to committing their time and resources to building a stronger community.

CEE strives to serve as many community service organizations as possible with the resources we have available. By offering programs that are concentrated on serving those less fortunate and addressing the greatest needs of our target community, we can make a positive contribution in helping the NPOs and NGOs we work with offer high quality programming and carefully measure outcomes.
