Background information on the Committee on NGOs

The Committee on Non-Governmental Organizations is a standing committee of the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC). It reports directly to ECOSOC, and the two reports of its annual regular session (usually at the end of January) and resumed session (in May) include draft resolutions or decisions on matters calling for action by the Council.

The Committee has 19 members who are elected on the basis of equitable geographical representation: 5 members from African States; 4 members from Asian States; 2 members from Eastern European States; 4 members from Latin American and Caribbean States; and 4 members from Western European and other States.

The term of office of its members is four years. Current membership will end on 31 December 2014.

The Committee's current membership includes, in alphabetical order: Belgium, Bulgaria, Burundi, China, Cuba, India, Israel, Kyrgyzstan, Morocco, Mozambique, Nicaragua, Pakistan, Peru, Russian Federation, Senegal, Sudan, Turkey, United States of America and Venezuela (Bolivarian Republic of).

The current terms of reference of the Committee are set out in Resolution 1996/31 of 25 July 1996. In its proceedings the Committee is guided by the Rules of Procedure of the Council. The main tasks of the Committee are:

- The consideration of applications for consultative status and requests for reclassification submitted by NGOs;
- The consideration of quadrennial reports submitted by NGOs in General and Special categories;
- The implementation of the provisions of Council resolution 1996/31 and the monitoring of the consultative relationship;
- Any other issues which ECOSOC may request the Committee to consider.
Online Access to Documentation of the Committee

Online access to the documentation of the Committee (the “Paperless Committee” system) is restricted to:

- members of the Committee;
- observer delegations of countries which have headquarters of non-governmental organizations that are being considered by the Committee for consultative status;
- representatives of non-governmental organizations being considered by the Committee for consultative status.

As they contain detailed administrative and financial information on the applying organizations, official documents that carry applications and reclassification by NGOs for consultative status are restricted documents.

Summaries of quadrennial reports by NGOs, as reflected by the document numbers indicated on pages 9 to 11 of this document are freely available without access restrictions, from the Official Document System of the United Nations. Documents can be retrieved by typing in the document number.

Official reports of previous sessions of the Committee are available at: www.un.org/ecosoc/ngo
